

I am a RID certified interpreter, but my parents, brother, sister and nephew are all deaf and use VRS everyday. I am totally against using any interpreters that are not RID certified. My family has the right to equal communication access which is not possible if relay centers use non-certified interpreters.